

Luke chapter 10

In this chapter we learn from the parable of the good Samaritan. He had compassion on the wounded man and made provision for him. The Lord Jesus likewise had compassion on the human race - each one of us wounded by sin - and made provision for our salvation. This meant suffering, bleeding and dying on the cross. He is alive today and able to save those who respond in faith to what He has done. The Bible says:

Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and you will be saved.
(Acts chapter 16 verse 31)
