

Luke chapter 8

<https://www.biblegateway.com/passage/?search=Luke+8&version=NKJV>

What an exciting chapter! From the touching story of women who had been healed by the Lord Jesus responding in kindness to Him, through the parable the sower and other narrative, there is a series of crises followed by calm.

After the storm on the lake we read in verse 24

there was a great calm.

In verse 35 we read that a man who had been living wild was sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind.

A woman who sought and found healing from the Lord Jesus heard the words

Go in peace

(Verse 48)

The great news for us today is that we can find that same calm and peace from the same source: it begins when we trust the Lord Jesus as Saviour and is available to us throughout our life. Here is the promise from the Lord Jesus:

Peace I leave with you, My peace I give to you; not as the world gives do I give to you.

(John chapter 14 verse 27)

and here is His command:

Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

May we each come to trust Him as Lord and Saviour and learn to rely on Him for peace.